IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE FOR RAJASTHAN AT JAIPUR BENCH, JAIPUR

ORDER

S.B.CRIMINAL MISC. PETITION NO.968/2004.

Badrunisa urf Bando VERSUS State of Rajasthan.

21.09.2006.

HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE DALIP SINGH

Mr.Rizwan Alvi]
Mr.Sanjay Rahar] for the petitioner.
Mr.B.K.Sharma, Public Prosecutor.

Heard learned counsel for the petitioner as well as learned Public Prosecutor.

In the above case, the petitioner who is a lady did not appear before the court on 19.08.2000, though the application, as it is submitted by the learned counsel for the petitioner for seeking exemption from personal appearance on the said date had already been filed and the learned counsel for the petitioner was present in the court.

On account of the absence of the petitioner on the date fixed, the learned trial court issued standing warrant against the petitioner.

Having heard learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Public Prosecutor, in the facts and circumstances, more particularly on account of the fact that the petitioner is a lady and had already submitted an application for exemption from personal appearance on the date fixed and the learned counsel for the petitioner was present on the date when the case was called on 19.08.2000, I deem it just and proper in order to secure the ends of justice that the standing warrant issued by the learned trial court be converted into bailable warrant. The petitioner is directed to appear before the learned trial court on 9th October, 2006. Learned counsel for the petitioner has also relied upon a judgment passed by this court in the case of Prakash Singh Rathore Vs. State of Rajasthan reported in 2000(2) RCC 1422.

In view of the above, this misc. petition allowed to the extent, as indicated above.
